

Data and Privacy File Guides

Apple Media Services: Apple Music Library Import Tracks

May 2025

File name	Apple Music Library Import Tracks.json.zip
File description	This file contains all songs and music videos imported into Apple Music Library.
Why Apple keeps this information	Apple retains this information in order to import songs and music videos from 3rd party music services into Apple Music Library.

Field Name	Details
Album Artist Name	The name of the artist connected to the album of the track
Album Name	The name of the album from which the media is played by the user
External Track ID	Identifier of the imported track in the 3rd party service
Imported Library Track ID	Identifier of the imported track in Apple Music Library
ISRC ID	The International Standard Recording Code of the recording
Library State	The step of adding content to the user's music library
Match State	The state of matching the track against the Apple Music database
Matched IDs	Matched identifiers of the Apple Music Catalog for this track
Multiple Artist Names	The names of all artists connected to the track
Multiple Album Artist Names	The names of all artist connected to the album of the track
Session ID	Identifier of the import session
Track ID	Identifier of the imported track
Track Artist Name	The name of the artist connected to the track
Track Artwork	The artwork associated with the track
Track Description	The description of the track
Track Duration	The duration of the track
Track Name	The name of the track
Track Positions	All playlists and respective positions the track belong to
Track Rating	The content rating of the track (e.g., explicit)
Track Type	The type of track (e.g., song, music video)
UPC	The Universal Product Code of the album
Visible	Whether the track is visible in user's library